garbage inspector was introduced at the meeting of the council last night. It provides for the removal of dead animals, gar bage, manure and other refuse matter, and prohibits the depositing of garbage, manure, ashes, and similar rubbish in the streets and alleys of the city. An important section of the ordinance reads: "In removing dead animals they shall be loaded in drays or carts and covered from sight; provided that it shall be unlawful for said garbage master or any other person whomsoever, to have or convey on any cart, dray or wagen, any dead animals from the Union Stock yards through or over the steets or alleys of said city."

The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed, Mr. Wood being the only councilman who objected. Samuel Denton and George Chase own a merry-go-round, which is in full operation on Twenty-fourth street. They claim that they were stopped from doing business on July 4, because they would not pay $5, when the daily custom had been $2, and through Colonel T. P. Filliott, their attorney, they ask for damages in the sum of $3,500. The annual appropriation ordinance, it

cluding back bills, was passed. The total is $81,662.37, distributed as follows: Inis $31,052.37, distributed as follows: In-terest fund, $35.851.77; judgment fund, $9.958.83; police department, $9.958.83; fire department, $5,975.29; public lights, $6,000; salaries of officers, $9.500; engineer/s department, $1,400; general fund, $3,017.65; total, Burglars Loot Stores. A case of bold burglary and robbery took place on N street between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets at an early hour yesterday morning.

The places of business of Theodore Volz and Max Gusowski were entered and the stocks in both places were riddled. Mr. Volz conducts a tailor shop. His back door was cut and the key on the inside of the door turned. Five whole suits of clothing and about $300 worth of cloth in the bolt are gone.

Mr. Gusowski's place is next door. There is only a thin pine partition between the two places. A door leading in from the rear was easily forced open by the thleves and the whole stock was gone over. The thleves were evidently very deliberate in their work, as nearly every article in this store was inspected and only the very best things taken. Two dozen pair of good pantaloons, a dozen hats, neckties, jewelry and several dozen shirts were carted away. From both places the thieves took enough stuff to fill a wagon, and no doubt that is the way the goods were gotten away with These stores are located in the very heart of the business portion of the town. It is only a block from the police station, and is a thoroughfare that is traveled on by people when there is any one on the street. The police force has been reduced to such a small number that thieves have been working here for the last ten days without any fear of detection. Two dozen robberies of every description have taken place, and the second victim is yet to be convicted. There is no man at the station, and in case a citizen should detect a man committing a crime he might be two hours in locating an

COBURN DID NOT DO IT ALONE Explains the Part He Took in the Laying

Off of Eiremen. At the meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners last night Commissioner Coburn arose to a question of privilege and stated that he wanted to be set right before the members of the fire department. He had been informed that the members, or at least, many of them, were holding him personally responsible for the stringent orders given the chief during the temporary deficiency in the funds at the disposal of this department. In some way the members had conceived that he alone had issued the order which practically keeps the men on duty for a period of twenty days without pay. This was not the case, as this action was due to a resolution passed by the board and voted for by every member of the com-mission, and Commissioner Coburn was ap-pointed as a committee of one to notify the chief of the action of the whole board. He said that he did not want to be blamed for something he was not guilty of. The chairman ordered that the records be made up showing the action of the whole board in this

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Trouble Over Sale of Lots in Douglas Ad-dition Not Yet Settled. The sale of Douglas addition lots, which has been a sort of intermittent nightmare with the county officials for several years, was brought up again at the meeting of the county commissioners yesterday afternoon. A lengthy communication was handed in from H. J. Abrahams and Henry Spigle, in which the petitioners demanded satisfaction for the manner in which they claimed to have been flimflammed by the county in the trans-action in question. The petition stated that in 1887 they had purchased five lots in Douglas addition from the county, for which they paid $1,800 in cash and gave promis-

In due time it developed that the county had no right to dispose of the property in that manner, and in December, 1891, they entered into an agreement with the board that they were to receive back their money in evolutions. in exchange for a quit claim deed to the property, and that a suit then pending to recover on the promissory notes would be dis-missed. They claim to have delivered the deed, but that the county failed to perform its part of the agreement and return the money and notes. The petition was referred to the judiciary committee for investigation to the judiciary committee for investigation.
